OUR OWN COFFEE

We love to exceed the expectations of our guests. However, enjoying good food and good drinks is also a high priority. Quality is very important to us. That is why we make certain choices. One of these choices is roasting our own coffee beans. With love and passion, Jesse roasts our coffee beans into a very unique blend.

A few times per week he can be found on the entresol in the Grand Café to roast the beans according to Post-Plaza standards. Feel free to pass by for a brief explanation and take a bag of freshly roasted beans home.
